Decision.

Mr Tsiang appeared for the police.

Mr Kyung Yung Tung & Nyeu Nyang Hu for the accused.

Mr Tsiang:- The accused is charged under Art. 2 Sect. 2 of the Law relating to Communists. The accused was arrested in the shop where the police seized books of a Communistic Nature. (Case recoutlined) The Shanghai Public Safety Bureau applied to the Court for the handing over of the accused but at the last hearing of the case they did not send their representative. The police now bring a charge against the accused and he should stand for trial in this Court.

G.D.C.121:- In the shop where the accused was arrested the police seized in all 2400 Books all of a Communistic Nature. At the time of his arrest the accused stated that the master is one named ' Tung Chi Shu ' and that he was only the accountant. At the time of the visit by the police the accused was the only one in the shop.

G.D.C.120:- I was with the accused last witness in the shop at the time the police said and saw the accused there. The books were all in the room above the shop. Accused was the only person in the shop at that time. He stated that he was the accountant. He sold books to the customers.

Accused in reply to the First Judge:- This is a very small shop and the owner is one named ' Liu Poh Shu '. We only sell books for one other party. The place is not our property. We have sold 7 issues of this book. The editor of the books came to the shop each day but on the day that the police came he saw them and did not enter the shop.

Mr Tsiang:- Aside from the fact that the accused is the highest paid employee of the shop he also has a share in the business and the shop was in the first place owned by a Military man.

Accused:- I did not know why the police arrested me as I was not named in the warrant.

Mr Tsiang:- The Shanghai Public Safety Bureau has not appeared before the Court. I think that is wrong.

at W' Hongkew on the 10-8-32 and interpreted by Clerk Hsu

My name is Tseu Lee Kyung (周廉卿), aged 34 years, native of Zaushing, employed as an accountant in the Woo Fong Bookshop (胡万本房) No. 734 Tsapoo Road, at which premises I also reside with my wife and family.

My native address is as follows:- Ching Tsz Oo Village (金城坊) Tsz Ci (諸暨), Zaushing.

On attaining the age of 8 years I commenced to study with a private tutor, and on attaining 19 years of age I was enrolled as a student in the Chekiang Marine Products School, Haimung. At the age of 22 years I left the aforementioned school and was unsuccessful in obtaining employment, so resided with my father-in-law for a period of three years, when I left Zaushing for the Whampoa Military Training School, Canton for further study, but as I was unsuccessful in passing the entrance examination, I obtained a situation as clerk in the school. After remaining in this situation for about four months, I left on account of ill health, and was unemployed for a long period.

In the year 1926 I proceeded to Peiping to seek employment, and obtained a position in the Military Library, North-West Army Corps, under the command of General Feng Yui Hsiang (冯玉祥) where I remained until 1928.

During the period between 1926 and 1932, I held diverse appointments in various Military Commands.

On the 1st Jan. 1931 I joined the 25th Route Army, having obtained an appointment as Assistant Paymaster at the 'quarters of the Army Corps, near Hanchow.

Tsung Tsue Sui (申善修) proprietor of the Woo Fong Bookshop, No. 734 Tsepo Road, I resigned from the appointment and came to Shanghai. The Woo Fong Bookshop was opened for business on the 20th Sept 1931, and I then commenced work at the shop as an accountant, receiving a salary of $60.00 per month.

On taking up this appointment, I was unaware that the shop sold communistic literature to the public, and until the shop was visited by the police, I was still unaware that communistic literature was stored in the shop.

The proprietor of the shop, Tsung Tsue Sui (申善修) is at present in Hanking, and during his periodical absences from Shanghai, I am authorised to act on his behalf, having full charge of the shop. Excluding myself, four male Chinese are employed in the shop, three apprentices whom I engaged, and an editor named Liew Fah Sui (李发修), who reads and corrects all manuscripts that are submitted to the proprietor for publication. On the manuscripts being accepted they are despatched to the publisher, and at no time do they pass through my hands or are read by me. On publication of the books, they are consigned to the Woo Fong Book-shop, where they are stored and offered for sale to the public. In regards to the books entitled "Foh Tse" (佛子), written by one named "Ting Ling" (丁玲), I am unacquainted with the author and have no recollection of having met her during my service at the shop. Part I and II of the 4th edition were printed by the Tsong Woo Printing Co., Avenue Road, near Thibet Road, and Part III and IV were printed by the Printing Department of the Ministry of Communications, (交通部) Markham Road. The edition was bound by the Dong Shing Book Binding Co., (同兴书局) Ho ng Kyih Li (永吉里), off Sinza Road.

As I do not read the manuscripts I was unaware that the books are of a communistic nature, and had I known, I would not have sold them to the public.

The manuscripts in respect to the books entitled "Poh Teu" were sent to the Hoo Fong Book-shop by messengers, to whom I pay certain sums of money at the instigation of the editor, on the manuscripts being accepted. A sum of $720 was remitted to "Ting Ling" in respect to the 1st edition of the book, $330 in respect of the 2nd edition, $255 in respect to the 3rd edition and $255 for the 4th edition.

The aforesaid sums of money were paid to the messengers in installments from time to time, when they called at the shop with new manuscripts or for money on the instructions of "Ting Ling".

At no time have I been a member of the Communist Party, neither do I receive remuneration from the Party for propaganda work. I have never previously been arrested or charged with any offense. I have a relative named Tsou Zung Poo (周澄波), doctor, residing in Kaischow Road, but he has not interest.
